

50th Reunion Yearbook of the Cornell Class of '65

Copies of the 50th Reunion Yearbook, one of the highest points of the Fiftieth Reunion, are available for purchase.

The 444-page Yearbook, edited by former Sun editor Bob Kessler, features essays specially written for the book by professors we had more than fifty years ago; articles on our classmates' creative activity; and catchup biographies by hundreds of our classmates.

All this illustrated with hundreds of color pictures in an elegantly designed, hardcover book printed on archival quality paper and stitch bound for permanence.

It is a volume surely to be treasured for years to come not only by us, but also by our children, grandchildren, and friends who wondered what Cornell was like.

A few copies are still available at a cost of $69.90 apiece, including shipping within the USA. For international shipment, please contact Bob Kessler at rekessler1@aol.com.
